

National Security Agency (NSA) Net

Proficiency Code: A

NSANet is the NSA's internal classified network. The network is a highly secured computer network consisting of fiber-optic and satellite communication channels almost completely separated from the public Internet. The network allows NSA personnel and civilian and military intelligence analysts anywhere in the world to have access to the agency's systems and databases. This access is tightly controlled and monitored.